Refund Policy for dropped classes

Prior to the date publicized as the first day of the term 	100%
During first week of the term (add/drop period)	90%

** Please note this is the first day of the TERM not the first day of the class.

On the first day of the term, the tuition is fully charged for all courses enrolled. If the course is subsequently dropped during add/drop period, the student will be entitled to a 90% credit on tuition on the dropped courses. After the add/drop period, all tuition remains as assessed. There will not be any credit assessed on fees for course withdrawals. Students will receive 100% of the tuition paid if they drop the courses prior to the date publicized as the first day of the term. THERE IS NO REFUND AFTER THE FIRST WEEK OF THE TERM. There is no refund of Room and Board after the first day of the term.

Undergraduate Online/Graduate Withdrawal

Withdrawals from the online and the graduate division programs or classes must be accomplished through the Office of the Registrar, and are only permitted through the sixth (6th) week of a 7 week term or the seventh (7th) week of an 8 week term. It is the student's responsibility to properly file a Request for Withdrawal form from the Registrar's Office. This will establish the day to which the University refund schedule applies. It is also the responsibility of the student to make a written refund request to the Student Financial Services Office before refunds will be made.

When a withdrawing student has been awarded financial aid and the student withdraws prior to completing 60 percent of the term, and if Title IV financial aid has been used to pay all or any portion of the charges, the financial aid program funds will be reimbursed to the appropriate agency in accordance with a formula required by federal regulations.

Unearned Title IV funds will be returned to the Title IV programs based on the number of days not attended. The order of refunds will be: Federal Direct Unsubsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Direct Subsidized Stafford Loan, Federal Direct PLUS Loan, Federal Direct Grad PLUS Loan, Federal Pell Grant, Federal SEOG and other Title IV aid programs. Students enrolled in only three credits each in the evening term will have a Title IV calculation computed on two terms.

If a student withdraws at any time during a semester, all Lynn University grants and scholarship funds will be prorated to the university accounts. This policy may result in a financial obligation that is payable to the university at the time of a student's withdrawal.
