VI. New Business

- a. Student Sal, ask if KOR can work more closely to admissions so that Lynn does not accept people that they do not have room for, and instead should welcome those that are already here. She also noted that the people on campus should be comfortable before you “enter more family into the house”, meaning before. More people are asked to join the Lynn family the students already on campus should be taken care of.
 - i. Max Gold, student from Housing and Residence Life, noted in response that high school students graduating are at a record high which is likely part of the cause as to why Lynn has an extremely large freshman class this academic year.

- b. Watson Institute Student, Pratima Thami, asked that KOR reduce their paper use and airplay the agenda instead.
 - i. Blake Frame, President, responded that it will be something KOR can definitely look into.

- c. Watson Institute Student, Pratima Thami, also asked if there could be an International Freshman pick up service from the airport and a shuttle service from Lynn University to Walmart.
 - i. Blake Frame, President, responded that it will be something KOR can look into.

- d. Watson Institute Student, Antonia Ndumba, noted that the laundry machines do not work well and did not know that she needed quarters to use it and asked KOR if there was an alternative to retrieve quarters.
 - i. Dwayne Griffith, Vice President, responded that it will be something KOR can look into but in the meantime to use the CSC service works app to pay for. Laundry services with a debit/credit card.

- e. Max Gold, student from Housing and Residence Life, asked if there will be more parking added and asked if the double rim can be taken off the basketball court hoop.
 - i. Blake Frame, President, responded that it will be something KOR can look into.

- f. Watson Institute Student, Jonathan Kibe, asked if KOR can look into a variety of selections in the dining hall including healthier options.

- i. Blake Frame, President, responded that it will be something KOR can look into in addition to the fact that Sodexo creates their meal schedules far in advance which may be impart due to why there is a smaller variety of meal options in the dining hall.
