

ESAS is your very own personalized financial aid portal.

Should you become eligible for a refund during the year, you will need to have set up your refund bank account information.

Set your parents or third party up to receive billing statements directly.

Select the tab above to enroll in or waive out of Lynn Health Insurance. All international students are required to enroll.

The most efficient way to receive your 1098-T is electronically. This is important for your parents' or your taxes.

Your login for this process will be sent to your Lynn email in late August.

A useful tax guide to help international students understand the U.S. tax system.

Take pre-emptive steps in order to prepare for applying for a job on campus before your arrival to Lynn.

