

Student Finances on MyLynn

Introduction

Student Finances on MyLynn is the primary source of financial information for new and current students. It acts as a gateway and information station for the world of student finances. The Student Finances page on MyLynn can be broken into two separate sections, pre-login and post-login. Once a student pays their deposit to Lynn University, they will be provided access to logging into the system.

MyLynn

When a student goes to MyLynn for the first time they will be able to access the Student Finances page by clicking on the relevant tab along the top of the page. The page is broken into a number of sections that provide general information to the student. After a student has deposited and gained access to log in to MyLynn, there will be a number of student specific options available.

- Make direct payments to their student account through MyLynn
- Go directly to their ESAS without having to log in again
- Elect method they wish to receive their 1098-T tax statement
- Set up their refund preference

Student Finances MyLynn is designed with the student and parent in mind. The site divides out financial aid and student accounts, allowing for ease of use and ability to locate specific information. Any questions about the page should be directed to studentfinancialservices@lynn.edu

Resources Available

There are many resources available on the Student Finances page.
