

We're delighted you are interested in returning to our on-campus community for the 2022-2023 academic year! Living on-campus is an easy way to make the most of your Lynn experience.

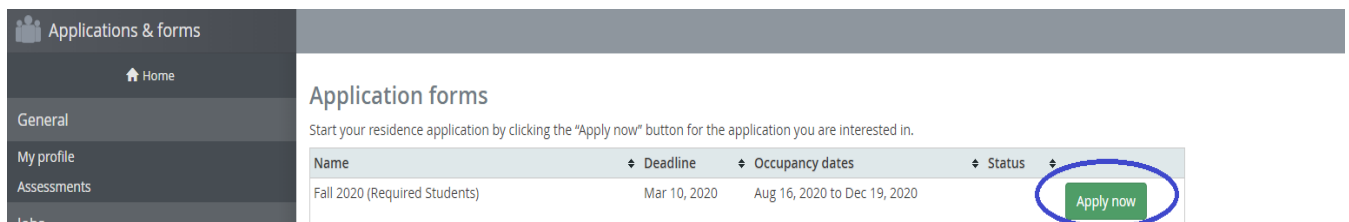

Housing applicants are able to apply for housing through their eRezLife account. If you are unable to log in or have any questions, please contact housing@lynn.edu. Please find below a step-by-step guide to walk you through the process of applying for the 2022-2023 academic year.

To apply for housing

1. Log into your eRezLife account at <https://lynn.erezlife.com>.
  - You must use your Lynn email and password to log in to eRezLife.
2. All housing application forms are available under the Housing Overview tab.

3. Click the "Apply now" button beside the housing application you wish to apply for.

4. Complete all questions on the application form. Mandatory question(s) on the application are marked with a red asterisk ( * ).

▼ Residence Life Information

Any student who is an undergraduate, day student with under 60 earned credit hours is required to live within campus housing. Students must complete and submit this application to receive a priority lottery number by the housing application deadline.. Students who do not fill out the application by the deadline but are required to live on campus will still be assigned a lottery number, but not given priority consideration.

5. After completing your application form, click "save progress" to save your data, or click "continue to: Confirm application" to continue with your housing application process.
